FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Special Representative to Muslim Communities Farah Pandith

You are invited to attend a media roundtable with President Obama's Special Representative to Muslim Communities Farah Pandith. She will be available on Wednesday, September 29, 2010, in the Essequibo Room in the Pegasus Hotel, from 3:40 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. The forum is sponsored by the U.S. Embassy and will feature a presentation by the distinguished guest, followed by a question and answer session. The forum is open to all media, and you are encouraged to attend.

During her brief visit to Guyana, Ms. Pandith will meet with students from Queens College, Bishops College, Central Islamic Organization of Guyana (CIOG), the Isa Islamic School, and the Shaeed Boys and Girls Orphanage, as well as with local Muslim and civic leaders.

During her tenure as the United States Special Representative to Muslim Communities, Farah Pandith has traveled around the world meeting with Muslims from a wide range of countries and cultures.
